Kevin Tomlinson – On The Edge

I have arranged for Kevin Tomlinson of the Kepow Theatre Company to bring his On The Edge show to The Cripps Hall Theatre on Wednesday 5 October at 7:00 p.m.

This show explores all those moments in life when we are “on the edge”. For example, falling in love, leaving home, getting a job... you name it and it could be explored. It is completely improvised – featuring masks, storytelling and audience participation. A truly unique show that can make us reassess our priorities in life, whilst simultaneously making us laugh.

Having previously worked with Kevin and being privileged to see his show and experience his workshop techniques I feel this would be very beneficial to all those pupils who are taking Drama though it will be extremely entertaining for all. It will be helpful in preparing pupils for devising work, performing and reviewing live performance.

I would hope all students from Year 9, who have chosen to study Drama, would attend this event, especially those who want to continue to GCSE and I would encourage family and friends to come and enjoy a fun evening with them too. Drama examination groups from Years 10, 11, 12 and 13 will be undertaking workshops with Kevin during Drama lessons on 5, 12 or 13 October.

The tickets cost £5 adults, £3 concessions each. Please return the slip below with a cheque made payable to Northampton School for Boys to the Box Office.
